From the desk of
PASTOR TOM PASMORE

I have been reflecting on the way that life throws sudden changes at us. We can be humming a tune driving safely and cautiously in our own lane when we receive a phone call or remember something that we were supposed to pick up and it sends you in a whole new direction. The phone call I received from the bishop back in March did exactly that. I had been working diligently with your leadership team on several initiatives to connect with the community and improve our ministry capabilities and worship. That phone call sent me in a completely different direction, one that will take me away to the Delaware District as District Superintendent. Even with my transition, the work here will continue but now it will have to continue without me. I can't tell you how proud I am of the leadership of this church. Even in the midst of this crazy season of multiple transitions, they are leading Asbury on to bigger and better things.

I just wanted to take a moment before I am gone to tell you all how much of a blessing you have been to me. You have welcomed me and my family with open arms. You have loved us deeply and walked with us through a huge number of transitions. You have been the best congregation that I have ever pastored. You will always be a part of me wherever I go. I will never forget the lessons and love that we have shared together here in Salisbury.

Honestly, I will never be able to thank you adequately. (And I will still try!) Thank you for the opportunity to be your pastor. I know that you didn't get much say (which is the really unique part of our system), but I believe that God brought us together and we have done so much so very well. Thank you for so many memories and smiles and even a few tears. Thank you for the hugs and handshakes and hymns and especially for all the food. (We are Methodists, right!) Thank you for being exactly who you are and putting up with me, and all my eccentricities, mistakes, failures, and forgetful moments. We are in it together until July 1, so keep up all the good work even with all the changes that are coming our way!

With love from the bottom of my heart,

Pastor Tom

save the date

We invite all members of the congregation to join SPRC in giving Pastor Tom and his family a warm send off on Sunday, June 9, 2024. We will be sharing best wishes and will have a pot luck lunch in Fellowship Hall at 11:30 a.m. after the 10:00 a.m. service. If able, please bring a dish to serve 8 people. Help us celebrate Pastor Tom's time here at Asbury United Methodist Church before he embarks on his new journey as a District Superintendent.

SPOTLIGHT UPDATE—MICHAEL STEFANEK

Dear Members of Asbury,

As part of my spotlight article, I thought I would share with you how things are going. With the spring season that is upon us comes new growth. Change can be scary and exciting. The Lord works in mysterious ways, and I believe everything in life has a purpose.

My transition to Baltimore has been going well. I have been getting acclimated to the city life and embracing all the wonderful things there are to do. My partner Chris and I get together as much as we can to explore the area and do fun things together. Our spoiled rotten dog, Jelly Bean, has also been adjusting to the new lifestyle and after several weeks seems to be more comfortable. Chris is hoping to get a new position with Sherwin-Williams in the metropolitan area so we can all be together daily and eventually relocate full-time to this side of the bridge. But as of now we still have our property in Salisbury, which I try to visit once/week. Otherwise, I spend most of my time at our apartment in Baltimore relatively close to Brown Memorial Park Avenue Presbyterian Church in the Bolton Hill neighborhood, where I now serve as Minister of Music.

Over all things have been going well. Everybody has welcomed me with open arms and has helped me settle during a difficult time of the church year. The senior pastor and the staff here are all wonderful to work with. Next season, we plan to revive the Tiffany Series, a concert series that features diverse performers and speakers.

My plans for the summer are to continue exploring, do some cycling, and trying out different restaurants in the area, of which there are many.

I wish everyone well and pray for the future of Asbury. Please feel free to visit sometime. All are welcome at Brown.

All Best,
Michael Stefanek

FINANCE

Janice Ilczuk, Director of Finance and Building

The Trustees continue working hard in upgrading our facilities. This year's summer projects include more renovations, removing asbestos in the building, and upgrading flooring/ceiling/lighting. After ACDC closes for the summer, we will start the asbestos removal in classroom #125 & office #128. We will begin this project approximately on June 4, with the removal of asbestos from the floors and ceilings in these 2 rooms. This renovation should not cause much disruption in the day to day operations as it will be confined to the east-end area in the Education Wing. We would like to thank Casey Taylor, Director of ACDC, for her diligence in obtaining a grant through the Nonpublic Aging School Program to help with the associated costs of the school project.

We will then move to the 2nd floor and begin the removal of asbestos from the floor and ceiling of the hallway. During this removal, there will be no access to the 2nd floor. Air quality tests are completed after each removal and the areas are not open until favorable results are obtained. Once all areas are open, renovations will start including, the new ceilings, lights and flooring. We are all looking forward to having new lighting, especially on the 2nd floor!

We will also be removing the asbestos from the ceiling in office #104 (Music Director) in the middle of all these renovations. We will install new lighting and ceiling in this room. During the removal a slight portion of the administrative hallway will be blocked off.

We want to make sure that you are aware that there may be slight disruptions to these areas over the summer and we will do our best to keep the renovations moving as smooth as possible.

If you have any questions concerning these projects, please contact Janice Ilczuk, - janice@asburyweb.org or by calling the church office.

From the Finance Committee

Several years ago Indiana University's School of Philanthropy asked people why they gave. After collecting data over years and across that country and world, they reduced the list to seven "types" that give to the church.

Here is that list:

- Altruists contribute out of generosity and empathy. They believe that their church cares about the poor and powerless, the lonely and the lost. They have a generous spirit for giving that will do something good for individuals and/or society. It is a cause worth supporting.
- Communitarians give because every community needs to have certain things; a fire department, a rescue squad, schools, hospitals, and ...churches.
- Devout individuals give for religious reasons and feel that giving is a moral obligation. They simply want to have an experience with God. It is an offering to God, a holy act, based solely on faith.
- Dynasts give because it is expected. Giving is deeply imbedded in their family tradition and often plays an important role in family relationships. "Our family came to this church when it was founded, and has been a presence ever since. It is our responsibility to keep this tradition alive."
- Investors see their contributions as investments and look for the return on investment both for their congregation and their bottom line. They seek to secure the future through strong finances and/or to have a church for the benefit of future generations.
- Re-payers give out of a feeling of loyalty and obligation. They believe that they should give back to the communities and institutions that have contributed to their lives. "God, through the ministry of the church, has made a difference in my life, and I want to give back some of what I received."
- Socialites believe that giving provides entry into a desirable social circle. "All my friends go to this church. I'll become involved with them." "I want to be accepted by..."

So, which kind of giver are you? Which of these types do you feel most closely connected to? Maybe there is more than one category? I feel that this is a good list and one that invites me to study my own motivations to give to the church. I encourage you to reflect upon what makes you excited to give. The better we understand ourselves, the better stewards we become of God's creation and God's resources.

ASBURY SPECIAL PROJECT

Dale Cropper, ASP BOD

The Asbury Service Project has had a busy spring with our local projects and fundraising. It's hard to believe that in less than 2 months we will be in Appalachia! We expect to have approximately 40 people on our trip, which will allow us to have 6 work teams serving our assigned community as the hands and feet of Christ.

We have a few more events in May as we wrap up our local work...

May 4 – final ramp build

May 5 – Sunday School Assembly

May 5 – serve dinner at Christian Shelter

May 19 – Car Wash Fundraiser

Lastly, we will have our commissioning service on June 2 at the 8:45 service. We depart for Appalachia on June 22 and return on June 30.

EASTER OFFERING UPDATE

We have received $2,880 towards our anticipated budget for Easter of $4,500. We would still like to challenge you to live out the words Jesus spoke to Peter in John 21:15-17 - We are to live for, care for, minister to and do well to others. Giving to this special offering supports our ministries that help us accomplish these missions. If you have not already given, would you prayerfully consider contributing to this special offering? Please use the Easter offering envelopes in the pews for this specific giving, and place in the plate offering. You can also mail your Easter Offering, give online, or drop off in the church office - just please make sure to note on your giving that it is for Easter.

Thank you for feeding God's sheep.

ASBURY CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER

The school year has truly flown by here at Asbury Child Development Center! We have grown in so many ways since September. Our students have truly flourished over the course of these nine months and we are so proud of their accomplishments. The dedicated teachers and staff have worked tremendously hard to create the environment to allow this growth.

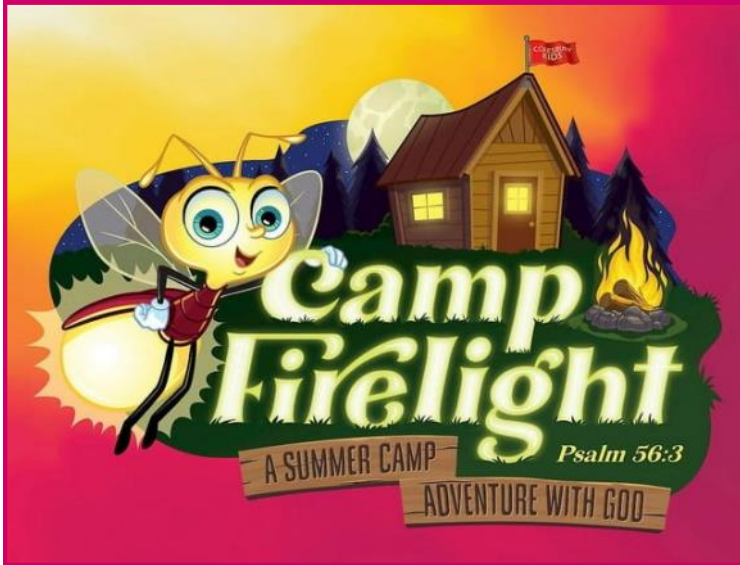

ACDC's annual field day was held on May 15th & 16th. The students participated in different activities, enjoyed a sno-cone and had a lot of fun with their classmates.

Please join us for the Dedication of the New Playground and Memorial Area on May 5 from 12:00 noon – 2:00p.m. Dedication begins at 12:30 p.m.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

Heather Harman, Director of Children and Care Ministries

Camp Firelight VBS is July 14-17!

Did you know that it takes over 50 volunteers to make VBS happen here at Asbury? We still have lots of spots to fill if we are going to be able to host our traditional VBS this year. There are openings for leaders and helpers in Crafts, Music, Games, Drama, and especially for class guides (which requires no prep at all...just take your class from place to place!). Tell me what you like to do and I will find a place for you!! Please talk to me on Sundays, email me at heather@asburyweb.org, or call me at the church office during the week if you have questions or are ready to help!

YOUTH MINISTRY

Brooke Christensen, Director of Youth & Family Ministries

We had another great group come out to Altitude Trampoline Park in April. There was some chaos with so many people there but everyone got in, there were no injuries that I heard of and all the youth were returned to their rides at the end of the night! Success!

Our final Youth Group event of the year will be bowling at Southbound Alley on Sunday, May 5, 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Family Sunday School

Our March Family Sunday School day was a fun scavenger hunt around the church! Groups interacted with the stained glass, admired the embroidered altar kneelers and took note of much of the artwork around the building. We used the Kululu app to share pictures which turned out great!

April's Family Sunday School day has not happened as of writing this article but we are planning to work in the pollinator garden and plant the starters that we prepared in January.

Student Awards and Recognition Days

It is the season for awards and student recognition! Sunday, May 5 we kick things off with the Ellegood award being presented at the 11:00 service.

Then we will be recognizing our high school and college seniors on Sunday, May 12 at the 11:00 service and handing out the Hyde Scholarship. Join us in celebrating!

And finally be sure to join us at the 11:00 Festive Worship Service on May 19 for Confirmation Sunday. The Blessing Bins are beautifully overflowing with goodies!

ADULT SPIRITUAL FORMATION AND MEMBERSHIP
Rev. Kristen Wall-Love, Director of Spiritual Formation and Membership

The spiritual practice for May is Visio Divina, or “sacred seeing.” This is an ancient form of Christian prayer where we allow our hearts and imaginations to prayerfully engage with an image.

Here’s how it works:

1. Pick out an image from a website, a photograph, painting, or icon. Nature can also be used as an “image.” I will be providing images via email each week for those who sign up, or use your own. Mark “spiritual practice of the month” on your connection card or email me: kristen@asburyweb.org to get on the weekly list.

2. Look at the image and let your eyes stay with the very first thing that you see. Keep your attention on that one part of the image that first catches your eye. Try to keep your eyes from wandering to other parts of the picture. Breathe deeply and let yourself gaze at that part of the image for a minute or so.

3. Now, let your eyes gaze at the whole image. Take your time and look at every part of the art. See it all. Reflect on the image for a minute or so.

4. Consider the following questions:
a) What emotions does this image evoke in you?
b) What does the image stir up in you, bring forth in you?
c) Does this image lead you into an attitude of prayer? If so, let these prayers take form in you. Write them down if you desire.

5. Now, offer your prayers to God in a final time of silence.

*You are invited to Brooke’s celebration on May 19!
Details forthcoming.*

2. Christ has died. Christ will come again.
3. Bad company corrupts good behavior. Stop Sinning!
4. Labor in the Lord is not in vain.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

UPDATE FROM THE SARWARI'S

UPDATE FROM FRONT ROYAL – AZIM AND FAMILY

I am very lucky because out of the blue I got a telephone call from Azim last week. It is his way to continually thank Asbury and all of those who have supported and helped him, but it is also checking in on how people are doing.

Of course, I turn the conversation around and want to know how they are doing. As with all transitions they never go quickly enough.

Azim continues to work very hard, and his company is always giving him extra opportunities to earn extra cash when possible. Frequently that means 12 hour days. Tahmina has remained at home with Farman, but the good news is he will start pre-school as soon as he turns four. May 3rd is his birthday!!!! Tahmina will then continue with her goal of getting her license. Abdul and Asenat continue to flourish in school and we also have a wonderful singer that has emerged in the school talent show. She has a beautiful voice and stage presence.

They miss Salisbury and all their friends so please keep reaching out. A note, text or card means a lot. Their home is isolated and they are not in a neighborhood.

They also are looking for a small, second car for Tahmina. They can pay $4000-$6000 for it. If you or anyone you know has a good, reliable used car, please let me know.

The best news is that they have been contacted by a church in Front Royal. The church reaches out to them frequently and wants them to do a program explaining their voyage to the U.S. and to teach them about their culture and foods. It is reminiscent of their time in Salisbury.

Mother's Tribute

DAY

A MOTHER'S LOVE

There are times when only a mother's love Can understand our tears,
Can soothe our disappoints
And calm all of our fears.

There are times when only a mother's love Can share the joy we feel
When something we've dreamed about
Quite suddenly is real.

There are times when only a mother's faith Can help us on life's way
And inspire in us the confidence
We need from day to day.

For a mother's heart and a mother's faith And a mother's steadfast love
Were fashioned by the angels
And sent from God above.

--Author Unknown

FOR YOU MOM ON MOTHER'S DAY

I want to tell you, Mum
That you're special to the Lord,
And you are valued in His eyes,
For no one loves you more.

And Mum, I want you to know
How blessed you really are,
For I know that it was never easy,
Those past years were quite hard.

But even through the years gone by,
I believe that God was there,
Reaching out with loving arms,
Though we were unaware.

And He is still beside you
Longing to be a part
Of all the things that interest you,
For you're special in His heart.

For even in the daily struggles
That seems to be part of life,
The Lord longs to be involved
And fill the void inside.

So Mum, on this Mother's day,
I just want you to know
That you were always appreciated
And that Jesus loves you so.
